Year by year they depart, and soon the place that once knew them shall know them no more forever. Nor are our younger brethren exempt from the universal law. Their ranks also, from time to time, are being relatively thinned by the same impartial summons. The record of the past year furnishes an illustration of this equal lot. Of the former class, death hath stricken from our catalogue two names, in those of Dr. Tobias Watkins and Judge Thomas Be ale Dorsey 5 and of the latter, one, in that of Dr. Samuel Ridout. I ask your attention to brief notices of each of them in turn: Dr. Tobias Watkins. Dr. Tobias Watkins died at his residence in the city of Washington, on the 14th day of November, 1855. His life was an eventful one, and presents many points of peculiar interest. Dr. Watkins came of an old and respectable...
