As compared with human slavery in our own country, - by which but one-tenth of its population was thereby brought into bondage, and less than one-half its territory directly affected, - the scourge of intemperance enters almost every town and hamlet in the land, and destroys not only the bodies but the souls of men. In the late war our nation is said to have sacrificed more than a million of lives and three billions of dollars. To support the liquor traffic, it is computed, from authentic sources, that the people of the United States expend annually six hundred millions of dollars, and waste untold wealth besides by...
