

Thoughts of a Man (Paperback)

By A. Antonio Bryson

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2005. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This is a collection of poems, prayers, letters and writings inspired by one-man life experiences. Written with a poetic sensibility, Thoughts of a Man will stretch your mind and help you to see inside the author s emotions. Some will laugh and some will cry. But, all who pick up the book, thumb through the pages and read with an open heart and mind will be touched. Diving into the darkness of the author s soul then soaring to the brightness of his imagination, will take you on a powerful journey. This collection of work is a raw depiction of emotions and creativity, written to better understand the world, self, life, love, and loss. The author weaves together words and phrases that easily convey the message of this work. The words will read as if you are having an intimate conversation with a close friend. Whether the author raises the window and invites you to take a sneak peak into his life or he is throwing open the doors and welcoming you to a full look at his...
