Standing by until Temeraire crossed, which she did two minutes and fifteen seconds later, the fleet closed in on victor and vanquished and accompanied them up the river. For an hour the demonstration was the noisiest ever heard at Charlotte. Cannons boomed, bombs exploded in midair, horns and whistles added their strident noises to the din, while immense crowds lined the piers and cheered themselves hoarse. 12:31:45 12:32:42 First Round-Start.
