Vagabond Press, Australia, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 210 x 148 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Ken Bolton's A Whistled Bit of Bop begins and ends with poems that embrace the abstract through collage - working with pre-existing materials, the initial selection often arbitrary. Double Trouble deals with time and timing, art, friendship; closing the collection, Triumvirate works with similar elements but in a context that is political and historical. Bolton acknowledges parts of a particular pantheon (F.T. Prince, Tony Towle, Peter Schjeldahl, Ashbery, Berrigan, John Forbes) in the sequence Late Night Reading, which tips from satire to elegy and out again, while Some Photos for Gabe takes the form of a letter, wondering at the recipient's life in London and meditating on two images of domestic life in Australia. In a different register, Australian Suburban Garden is spun out of the everyday - art, time, Europe. Some poems are amusing tours de force, others are like spells. The light changed?.
