Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Diego is coasting. He has been content with living his life in a sun scorched pueblo that lies on the route of the pilgrim path: The Way of Saint James. But one stormy night, change is forced upon him when his father, Eduardo, the local candyfloss man, unexpectedly catches him entertaining a captivated crowd with flamenco guitar rhythms. At that moment, Eduardo relinquishes the hold from the ghosts of his past and realises it s time for Diego to confront his fate. Eduardo arranges for Diego to live and work on a farm and sends him on his way with the gift of his old Spanish guitar. Candyfloss Guitar is a story about taking the first steps on a journey towards shrouded dreams and searching for meaning. Stephen Marriott, the soulful travel novelist, brings a subtle tenderness to this traveller s tale that traverses the spiritual and physical worlds. A Gabriel Garcia Marquez-style tale of self-discovery kissed by the supernatural. Short, lovely and satisfying. - Acclaimed spiritual fantasy author Laura K. Cowan, author of Music of Sacred Lakes Thin Places: Supernatural Tales of the Unseen.
