Thine the grave, lucent night s oblivion, The tawny moon that waits below the skies, - Strange as the dawn that smote their blistered eyes Who watched from Calvary when the deed was done. And thine the good brown earth that bares its breast To thy benign October, thine the trees Lusty with fruitage in the late year s rest; And thine the men whose blood has glorified Thy name with Liberty s divine decrees - The men who loved thy soil and fought and died.
