Not illustrated. 1918 Excerpt: .long, and two miles broad; our route is by the eastern side of the Cayuga Lake to Ithaca, and thence by the western? side of Seneca Lake to Geneva on its northern extremity. We proceeded by the western road as far as the outlet from Cayuga Lake, where there is a wooden bridge remarkable for its length, above a mile, and thence by the east side of the lake to Aurora, which is charmingly situated on rising ground above the lake, and is considered an eligible place of residence, on account of the beauty of the surrounding scenery, and cheapness of the necessaries of life. The village does not consist of a connected street, or rows of T Auburn prison built i8r7. Mr. S. is in error here. A subsequent reference to the vil lage of Ovid shows that the route was on the eastern side...
