Besides their power of assessing and appropriating taxes, they appoint way-wardens, and allot labourers for the repair of the publick highways. They likewise nominate proper persons, who are called collecting constables, for the collection both of the publick and parochial taxes. The supreme court of judicature for the whole island (commonly called the Grand Court, as possessing similar jurisdiction in this country to that of the several courts of King s Bench, Common Pleas, and Exchequer, in Great Britain) is held in the town of St. Jago-de-la-Vega, the capital of the country of Middlesex, on the last Tuesday of each of the months of February, May, August, and November, in every year. In this. court, the chief justice of the island presides, whose salary is only T. 120, but the perquisites arising from...
